Dear Susanne and Masood,

Needless to say that the Australia and the Netherlands are very disappointed that you, even under the present pressure and time available, could not deliver all the reports on time. As you rightly say, we will now consider termination of the contract with TLO.

However, due to the holiday season and key people being on holiday we request you to send the rest of the reports as soon as possible, we will start assessing them and will come back to you on how we see the way forward with TLO, somewhere in the beginning of January 2012.

Kind regards

Dear s.33(a)(iii) and Dave

I still have to take a final read over the two revised reports (ALP / Transport) and the revised TK District Profile. The annual report also needs a last read and cleaning up.

As I have to run to the airport now, I'm taking it all with me. I doubt I can send things from Dubai airport, but will try, else I'll send it when I arrive in Sydney (which is tomorrow night Sydney time, so afternoon here).

I know you said that if we don't make today's 19 December deadline the contract is off and you will terminate. We are aware of this, we tried really hard, but fell short in time.

You can call Masood Karokhail s.47F about this if you wish, but we'll finish and hand the reports in anyhow.

So far you should have gotten 5 reports. And as said, pending are three revisions, and one new one.

Updates (2/11 revised) and 3/11 new

District Profiles (Chora and Deh Rawud)
M/E Report

All the best for the holidays, and I'll come back online in Sydney, unless I manage Dubai airport (but my transit time is also not very long).

Kind regards, nevertheless, Susanne

P.S. Masood will keep me posted where we stand, so I know about the other requirements we discussed (if they are on or off). I need to run now so I don't miss the plane.
