Development cooperation
fact sheet: April 2019

Australia is contributing to greater prosperity and stability in Cambodia and the region by supporting access to public services and more balanced, inclusive economic growth.

Strategic direction

Australia is the fifth largest bilateral development partner to Cambodia[^] and has a strong reputation for delivering effective development cooperation. We work with a balanced mix of implementation partners to reduce poverty and address the constraints to economic growth.

Our investments are prioritising:

- improved access to essential infrastructure;
- increased agricultural productivity and farmer incomes; and
- better health and wellbeing.

Program highlights

Since 2015, Australia has:

- Supported private investment into water and electricity infrastructure which is projected to provide more than 1.15 million people with reliable and affordable water or electricity connections.
- Improved service delivery and referral systems for women affected by violence, and direct funding for more than 12,000 affected women and their families to receive support services.
- Stimulated greater investment by the Government of Cambodia to protect the poorest three million Cambodians from significant health costs through the Health Equity Fund.
- Supported over 33,200 farming households to improve their agricultural practices and increase their income.
- Awarded 178 long-term scholarships to Cambodians through the Australia Awards Scholarships program.
