Alumni of 2011 to 2016

Tracer Survey

Outcomes Summary: Rwanda

This country report details the responses of alumni from Rwanda to the Australia Awards Global Tracer Facility Tracer Survey carried out in 2018-19. The Tracer Survey was conducted between November 2018 and February 2019 and targeted alumni who completed their award between 2011 and 2016.

Alumni were asked a range of questions via an online survey, focussed on exploring the long-term outcomes of the Australia Awards. In total 3,768 alumni in this cohort from more than 123 different countries participated in the survey. A 26 per cent response rate of the target cohort was achieved globally. This report focuses on the response data of alumni from Rwanda.

For Rwanda, there were 54 alumni included in the target population. Responses were received from 13, a response rate of 24 per cent. Among these respondents, 10 were scholarship alumni and three were fellowship alumni.

The survey data provide a valuable quantitative insight into alumni use of knowledge and skills, development of networks and contribution to cooperation with Australia. The responses also offer rich examples from alumni of the types of contributions they are making, the way in which they are using their award, and the things that help and hinder them in reaching their potential.

The data detailed here are reported based on the four long-term outcomes of the Australia Awards as articulated in the Australia Awards Global Strategy: Investing in the next generation of global leaders for development 2016-2018 and the Australia Awards Global Monitoring and Evaluation Framework. In terms of responding to the long-term outcomes of the Australia Awards, the following summary offers findings based on the responses of alumni from Rwanda. Further outcomes are included in the infographic following this summary.

Outcome 1: Alumni are using their skills, knowledge and networks to contribute to sustainable development.

- All alumni from Rwanda indicated they have passed on their skills and knowledge to others in their country on return from their award.
- All alumni indicated they had introduced improved practices and innovations in their work on return from their award.

Outcome 2: Alumni are contributing to cooperation between Australia and partner countries.

- 50 per cent of alumni from Rwanda have maintained frequent contact with fellow alumni, while 67 per cent have frequent contact with friends in Australia and 42 per cent with Australian students/alumni.
- In terms of frequent contact with Australian organisations, 33 per cent of alumni have frequent contact with Australian institutions, 8 per cent of alumni have frequent contact with Australian businesses and 17 per cent with Australian Embassies, High Commissions or Consulates.

Outcome 3: Effective, mutually advantageous partnerships between institutions and businesses in Australia and partner countries.

- 50 per cent of alumni from Rwanda indicated having had a professional link with an Australian organisation at some time following award.
- These links were with Australian universities, the government sector, and the Australian High Commission or Consulate.

Outcome 4: Alumni view Australia, Australians and Australian expertise positively.

- All alumni from Rwanda indicated their experience in Australia positively influenced their perception of Australia.
- All alumni have provided advice to people in Rwanda about pursuing opportunities in Australia.

The Tracer Survey represented the views of a range of alumni from Rwanda. Of those who responded, 23 per cent were women and 85 per cent came from an urban location. The largest age group represented were alumni 30 to 39 years. Among all alumni, 92 per cent were employed full-time. Of those alumni employed, 70 per cent indicated that they hold a formal leadership role.

In addition to this Outcomes Summary, this report includes an infographic as well as data tables including the detail of respondents from Rwanda to the Tracer Survey. The data tables correspond to each of the Australia Awards long-term outcomes and include benchmark data from the entire survey response population.

😊 😊 alumni voices

As a senior technical Advisor I have been a team lead providing strong leadership and technical vision for the activities accomplished. This has brought forth the sharing and passing of new skills and knowledge acquired from my master of public health study.

I have kept in touch with my fellow students and mentors in Australia. I have supported the establishment of an alumni association in Rwanda and country pursuing the registration of the organisation.

Part of the Action Plan was to train professionals in human rights and gender based violence. Since April 2018, I am one of the 10 country trainers for the region of 12 countries in Africa.

My Master's final research project supervisor visited me in Rwanda for the main purpose to explore collaboration opportunities with the University of Rwanda (my institution). I also got a PhD scholarship mainly through that collaboration. I believe upon completion of my PhD studies I will be equipped with research skills that not only will benefit me as a person but also my institution (University of Rwanda) and the country as a whole.
