CAUTION: This email originated from outside the organisation. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognise the sender.

Hi Tim,

As discussed, I'm writing to confirm that DPC is making arrangements for The Honourable Daniel Andrews, Premier of Victoria to travel to China in the week commencing 27 March 2023. The Premier will be accompanied by Mr Jeremi Moule, Secretary, Victorian Department of Premier and Cabinet, two advisers and a security detail of two Victoria Police members.

The proposed itinerary for the trip also currently includes (noting dates may shift):

- Arriving in Beijing at 5:50am on the morning of Tuesday 28 March 2023.
- Beijing to Nanjing on Wednesday 29 March 2023 to meet with representatives from Victoria's Sister State in Jiangsu.
- Nanjing to Chengdu on Thursday 30 March 2023 to meet with representatives from Victoria's Sister State in Sichuan
- Depart Chengdu for Melbourne at 1:55pm on Friday 31 March 2023

Victoria's Trade and Investment Commissioner to Greater China Brett Stevens will support the Premier on the ground in country and has been in discussions with Ambassador Fletcher. We are grateful for DFAT's assistance in working with our Commissioner and we hope to arrange a meeting between the Premier and Ambassador Fletcher in Beijing on 28 March 2023. This trip is still only being shared on a needs to know basis but anticipate an announcement prior to departure.

Should you have any questions about the proposed travel or require further information for the Embassy, please do not hesitate to contact me or s 47F . In addition, I will confirm details of requests for in-person briefings ahead of the travel as soon as possible.

Finally, I am hoping you can assist us by providing an official letter/TPN from the DFAT Victorian State Office. The Chinese Consulate in Melbourne has requested this to assist with Visa processing given there are diplomatic and official passport holders in the travelling party.

Thanks in advance and very happy to discuss.

FYI: just in case you haven't seen; this from MFA media conference yesterday: Foreign Ministry Spokesperson Mao Ning's Regular Press Conference on March 28, 2023 \(fmprc.gov.cn\)

Reuters: According to reports, the Victorian premier of Australia is set to travel to China this week on a trade mission, the first visit to China by an Australian political figure since the signing of the AUKUS deal. What's China's comment?

Mao Ning: To improve, maintain and achieve sound growth of China-Australia relations serves the shared interest of both sides. We hope Australia will work with China in line with the principles of mutual respect, mutual benefit and seeking common ground while shelving differences to properly handle issues we disagree on, expand cooperation and promote the sound and steady growth of bilateral relations.

Talking points:

- One is the ongoing detention of Australian citizen, Cheng Lei (pron: Cherng Lay).
- She has been detained in China for almost three years, s 47F

BACKGROUND

Ms Cheng is currently awaiting a verdict in her case. She faced a closed door trial in Beijing around 12 months ago. There is a deadline for her verdict to be handed down, but judicial authorities have extended that deadline repeatedly, and can continue to do so under Chinese law.

Ambassador

Thank you once again for your understanding of the delayed updates on the Premiers trip. There have been few changes since my last communication, in particular with the briefing details that we would like for you to deliver.

Please note that the party are now staying at the Mandarin Oriental Wangfujing, B3 East Building, WF CENTRAL, Building 1, No. 269 Wangfujing Street, Dongcheng District, Beijing, 100006

I would like to request if you were able to provide your briefing at this location, to be held at 10am in the Taipan 1 room, on level 5. Again noting that your flexibility on location is appreciated.

As discussed, The Honourable Daniel Andrews, Premier of Victoria will travel to China on the 27 March 2023. The Premier will be accompanied by Mr Jeremi Moule, Secretary, Victorian Department of Premier and Cabinet, two advisers and a security detail of two Victoria Police members.

- The Honourable Daniel Andrews, Premier of Victoria
- Mr Jeremi Moule, Secretary DPC

s 47F

The proposed itinerary for the trip also currently includes (noting dates may shift):

- Arriving in Beijing at 5:50am on the morning of Tuesday 28 March 2023.
- Beijing to Nanjing on Wednesday 29 March 2023 to meet with

- representatives from Victoria's Sister State in Jiangsu.
- Nanjing to Chengdu on Thursday 30 March 2023 to meet with representatives from Victoria's Sister State in Sichuan
 - Depart Chengdu for Melbourne at 1:55pm on Friday 31 March 2023

I have attached a program for your information on who we are meeting with and where, to assist in your briefing topics. The Premier has asked that if you could provide some more detailed insight on the FDI landscape, that would be very much appreciated.

We look forward to confirmation of your availability and thank you once again for your teams support through the CGs on this program

The Hon Daniel Andrews MP

Dear Premier

I was delighted to hear of your upcoming visit to China. The lifting of China's COVID restrictions will allow many forms of engagement to resume. Your own visit will make an important contribution to the bilateral thaw.

The Embassy and our Consulates-General in Shanghai and Chengdu are looking forward to supporting your visit and to helping to advance ties between Victoria and China.

I would be pleased to brief you on current issues after your arrival in Beijing on 28 March (prior to my departure later that day for Hainan, where I will support the Government's participation in the Bo'ao Forum for Asia). I also offer the support of Embassy staff for any assistance you may require during your visit.

I know the Embassy is already in contact with your team to assist with practical arrangements. I am copying this letter to our Consuls-General in Shanghai and Chengdu, who also stand ready to assist with program elements in Jiangsu and Sichuan Provinces, respectively.

Yours sincerely

Graham Fletcher has written directly to Premier Andrews to extend an offer of assistance during his upcoming visit. Appreciate advice on whether you are best placed to deliver the attached letter or if there is a better approach.

I understand that you have scheduled a briefing with Graham on 28 March - welcome advice on whether DFAT's assistance would be required to any other elements of the program in Beijing, Nanjing or Chengdu.

With regards to briefing from Graham, in addition to his general overview and insights, it would be great to get some information on FIRB and the FDI position, perhaps Treasury best placed rather than Austrade?.

Thanks for the offer on facilitation, will reach out if we hit hurdles.

Hi Brett

Hope all is going well as you get to the pointy end of visit planning.

Graham asked me to reach out for a steer on any themes that he should touch on during the Premier's briefing on 28 March. He is proposing to bring an Austrade rep to "answer any tricky questions on the investment environment". He would also draw in relevant agencies if there was interest in particular areas such as quarantine, agriculture, education. Any tips would be great.

He also said it would be useful to get a sense of the Premier's visit program while in China, if that were possible by COB Monday.

And don't hesitate to let us know if you require any support with airport facilitation or any other logistics arrangements. Appreciate that the program must still be coming into shape and you are no doubt juggling several issues at the moment. But please do let us know if you need anything from DFAT.
